

UNKNOWN SOLDIER HOME FROM WARS

PRESIDENT HARDING PAYS TRIBUTE OF THE NATION AT ARLINGTON

Great Men of Other Countries Hear President Pledge the Country Against Future War
—The Military Decorations of Europe
Are Laid Upon the Casket of the Soldier

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Under the wide and starry skies of his own homeland, America's unknown dead from France sleeps tonight, a soldier home from the wars.
Alone, he lies in the narrow cell of live stone, that guards his body; but his soul has entered into the spirit that is America.

Scrolled across the marble arch of the memorial raised to American soldier and sailor dead, everywhere, which stands like a monument behind his tomb, runs this legend:
"We here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain."

The words were spoken by martyr Lincoln over the dead at Gettysburg. And today with voice strong with determination, another president echoed that high resolve over the coffin of the soldier who died for the flag in France.

Great men in the world's affairs heard that high purpose reiterated by the man who stands at the head of the American people. Tomorrow, they will gather in the city that stands almost in the shadow of the new American shrine of liberty dedicated today.

PORK LOINS DOWN CONSUMER IS NOT BENEFITTED BY IT

Wholesale Price 17 Cents as Against 34 in 1920

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Choice pork loins today were wholesaling at just half as much as they sold for at this time last year while all fresh pork products are lower now than for several years, one of Chicago's largest packers said in a statement today. Pork loins are wholesaling at from 15 to 20 cents, the statement said. This is the lowest figure quoted since 1912.
The range of the wholesale price for medium loins since 1912 has been as follows:
1912—16 cents.
1913—17 cents.
1914—17 1/2 cents.
1915—18 cents.
1916—20 cents.
1917—25 cents.
1918—32 cents.
1919—35 cents.
1920—34 cents.
1921—17 cents.
The heavy grade of loins wholesaled from two to five cents lower.

Retail prices of these products have not fallen appreciably in Chicago, however, according to a newspaper which asserts that an investigation discloses that pork chops are retailing for as high as forty cents and pork tender-loins are bringing as high as eighty cents.

A statement issued a few days ago by the Institute of American meat packers asserted that beef products were now selling at prices as low or lower than those prevailing in 1914.

HELLO GIRLS MUST KEEP ON ALERT

Records Show 11,681 Calls on Illinois Company's Switch Board in Three Hours' Time

The public will be interested in gaining some idea of the number of calls that pass thru the Illinois Telephone Co. office in a given time. Eight operators in the office on Armistice Day between the hours of 8 and 11 o'clock answered a total of 11,681 calls. These were received on the board as follows: 8 to 9 o'clock, 3,757 calls; 9 to 10 o'clock, 4,165 calls; 10 to 11 o'clock, 3,759 calls. The large-est number of calls answered by any one operator during one hour was 578.

That the period of prayer announced by the president was well observed by telephone subscribers is shown by the fact that during the two minutes following the sounding of the whistle only 4 calls were received upon the switch board of the office.

CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT MUST NOT FAIL

People Will Not Accept Excuse Says
Gompers

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The people of the world expect success from the armament conference at Washington and they do not want an excuse or a reason for a failure, Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor told the disarmament meeting in Madison Square Garden here tonight.

"The World War was the high climax of the contest between the old and the new," Mr. Gompers said. "The philosophy of rule by force, by tyranny, by autocracy and militarism, has been swept out of the world. That is the paramount fact of our time. A system has been slain. Unless those who are to be engaged in those great labors shall comprehend this fact and shall build upon it we may well have fears for the future. If statesmen do not understand the age into which we have entered, it may well be doubted whether the world can persist under the needless burden which their actions will impose."

"With the threat and the chalenge of the last great stronghold of militarism gone, it is possible for the nations of the world to organize for peace and unless they do so organize they may face catastrophe. There is today thro-out the world a revulsion of feeling and a resentment against further criminal waste of manhood and womanhood and of wealth.
There is in the tide of the day a great current which runs toward peace. We must take this current as it serves to reduce the armaments of the world to the last possible degree, to make secure the peace of the peoples of all the nations of the earth. If we fail to take this current as it runs we shall, I fear, lose all our ventures."

"We are confronted with accounts of the difficulties that before the conference. We are beset by accounts of various clashing political and industrial interests.
We are beset by those who harp upon the differences between disarmament, limitation of armament and reduction of armament.
All of these are doubtless calculated in some measure to serve as an excuse for possible failure."

People Want Results.
"Let me say here that the people of the world do not want an excuse for failure. They do not even want a reason for failure.
The people of the world are looking toward Washington with a mighty appeal, with a great trust and a profound hope and they want success. The people of the world are not concerned about differences of meaning in words."

"They demand unity of purpose in action. They demand freedom from the burden of armament and they demand a world organized for peace."

"We have been urged not to arouse too great an expectation, not to agitate the mind of our people too energetically. Let me say that the expectation exists and the mind of the people is determined. The expectation will not be satisfied with failure and the mind will not be calmed with unfulfillment."

"Those who see and understand will be falling in their duty if they see failure impending and do not proclaim to the world what they envision. I pledge to you that for myself as I am, confident as I am, determined as I am to help if I become apparent, I shall speak and I shall proclaim to the people the truth as I see it, sparing neither institutions nor persons."

HUT SERVICE FINE ON GLOOMY DAY
The unpleasant weather Friday made the army huts erected for the day more popular. These huts in charge of the Salvation Army Post and the members of the Service Star Legion, served coffee and doughnuts all day to ex-service men. As it was so raw and chilly the men especially appreciated this service. The huts were protected from the storm by the sacks of leaves which had been piled against the walls.

QUIET IN OTHER CITIES
Oscar Ingram drove to Jacksonville yesterday coming thru Decatur and Springfield, and found the roads passable but slippery.
Mr. Ingram was very much impressed with the fact that a big parade was a feature of the Armistice Day celebration here, for a found very little doing in the way of outdoor celebrations in either Springfield or Decatur.

Former President Is Given Demonstration

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Former President Wilson made his first public appearance today since he left the white house, riding in the funeral procession for the unknown soldier and later greeting a crowd gathered at his home.

Everywhere Mr. Wilson was given a demonstration. When his carriage entered the funeral line at the foot of Capitol Hill, he was greeted with a fluttering of handkerchiefs and then with hand clapping and cheering which continued until he left the line after passing the white house, where he exchanged salutes with President Harding.

The demonstration at his home was of greater proportions. It was arranged as a non-partisan affair by a committee of seven women for whom Hamilton Holt of New York was the spokesman.
"We congratulate you, a wounded soldier of the war, on regaining your health," Mr. Holt said to the former president who had come to the front portico of his home to receive the committee.

"We pledge you our honor and respect, your work shall not die." When the cheering which greeted this statement had subsided, Mr. Wilson made his first public utterance since he was taken ill more than two years ago.

"I wish I had voice enough to reply to you," he said. "I can only thank you from the bottom of my heart. God bless you."

Voices started up "My Country
'Tis of Thee" and at the end of the first stanza, Mr. Wilson kissed his hand to the crowd, while Mrs.
Wilson at his side wept silently.
A minute more and Mr. Wilson had re-entered his home, but it was half an hour before the crowd dispersed.

MRS. ELIZABETH BUTLER PICKS UP WIRELESS DIED FRIDAY EVENING

Well Known Resident Passes Away at Her Home on South Church Street—Funeral Probably Monday.

Mrs. Elizabeth J. Butler died at her home, 787 South Church street at 11 o'clock Friday night.
The Mrs. Butler had been in failing health for some time her condition was not considered serious and her death came as a great shock to the family and friends.

Decedent was born in the state of Maryland 65 years ago but came to this state early in life and since that time she has been a resident of Jacksonville. She was united in marriage here to Patrick J. Butler 43 years ago. Mr.
Butler preceded her in death several years ago.

The following children survive:
Miss Catherine Butler, Miss Mary Butler, Patrick J. Butler, Dr.
Thomas B. Butler, Mrs. Elizabeth Cain, John M. Butler, Mrs. Marguerite Keating and Miss Helen L. Butler. All are residents in this city except Dr. Butler, who lives in St. Louis.

Mrs. Butler was a member of the Church of Our Savior and was always faithful to its teaching.
Her chief interest centered in the home and here she found her greatest joy in ministering to those she loved. That she was a good mother is attested by the fact that her sons and daughters are honored citizens of the community. These children have been a great comfort in her declining years and have returned in large measure the love and care which she bestowed upon them.

Funeral services probably will be held Monday morning, but the hour has not been set and will be announced later.

PEP MEETING HELD
AT ILLINOIS COLLEGE

Students Hope to Secure Special Train to Decatur Next Saturday.

A rousing "pep" meeting was held at 7:30 o'clock last night at the Illinois college gymnasium.
The meeting was held primarily for the purpose of arousing interest in securing a special train to Decatur on Nov. 19, when the college team will meet Millikin.

Edward Thies served as chairman and the program started with the singing of a college song.
Then various members of the team made brief remarks, and Henry Smith, an alumnus of last year's class spoke on "The Spirit of the School." Short talks were also made by John Flerke and Miss Geneva Thomas.

An effort is to be made to secure a special train for the game at Decatur a week from today, and this will be possible if 125 persons will agree to go on that date. A large number of those present last night signified their intention to make the Decatur trip and there is a possibility that the special train will be secured.

Any persons who are willing to go to Decatur on the date indicated and help boost the college team are asked to leave their names at the Lane book store some time during the coming week.

An informal dance followed the
"pep" program.

GREG GETS DECISION OVER BILLY SHADE

Pittsburgh, Nov. 11.—Harry Greg, of Pittsburgh was given the newspaper decision over Billy Shade of San Francisco in a ten round bout here tonight. Greg weighed in at 164 pounds and Shade at 172.

EYES OF WORLD FIXED HOPEFULLY ON WASHINGTON

Every Nation Comes in the Spirit of Good Will

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—With the eyes of all the world fixed hopefully upon them, the accredited spokesmen of the powers will meet in Washington tomorrow to try to find a way to ease the heavy burden of armaments.
In the historic quest Great Britain, France, Italy, Japan and the United States, a group which acting together can turn the whole tide of civilization into new channels, all have pledged a solemn and determined cooperation.

In addition, China, Belgium, Portugal and The Netherlands, invited because of their vital interest in the problems of the Far East will sit in the conference to complete the circle of those who are to strive for the new day of international relationship.

Outward manifestations of confidence in the success of the negotiations never have been in more prominence than on the eve of the assembling of the delegates in formal conclave. Every nation is declared by its leaders to be ready to come to the conference table with a spirit of unqualified good will for every other, and behind there is a great urging force of world opinion seeking translation into the covenants of permanent friendship.

Among the statesmen and diplomats of the visiting nations the great topic of interest tonight was the address made at Arlington today by President Harding, who summoned the conference into being and who will welcome it to American soil tomorrow.

Upon every hand were heard expressions of satisfaction that in paying his tribute to America's soldier dead, the chief executive grasped his opportunity to renew the pledge of the United States to take its full share of leadership in the attainment of a better order.

Expect Concrete Proposal.
In the fulfillment of that pledge it is the expectation of all the delegates that the American government will place before the conference as soon as it begins its work, a concrete proposal for armament limitation. Such a proposal has been prepared by the American delegates, and there seems to be universal agreement that as the initiator of the negotiations the United States should have the first say. Whether the proposal will be submitted tomorrow however, is a question which present conditions do not indicate.

The American delegation held a final conference Secretary Hughes calling them together soon after the ceremonies at Arlington were concluded. The discussions were continued well into the evening.

Secretary Hughes as head of the American delegation will call the conference to order tomorrow and after President Harding has delivered his address the delegates will turn to the business of perfecting a permanent organization. Diplomatic custom generally is expected to assure the selection of Mr. Hughes as permanent chairman and when that and other details of personnel are completed it is probable an adjournment will be taken until Monday.

CITY TEACHERS TO HOLD MEETING

Program Planned for This Morning in Three Parts—Address by Supt. Perrin at 9 o'clock.

"Evidences of Direct Instruction" will be the theme of an address that Supt. of Schools H. A.
Perrin will make at 9 o'clock this morning at a meeting of the high school teachers, to be held at the high school. Afterward there will be sectional meetings when matters relating to art, music, junior and senior high schools will be discussed.

As a third part of the program some demonstration lessons will be given. Miss Laurie of the Washington school will show the direct method of teaching spelling in the fourth grade. Miss Ellington of the high school will present a muscular movement writing demonstration.

As a final number Miss Ethel Wilder, supervisor of physical training, will show about certain lines of work done in the junior high school.

REV. E. H. STICKNEY IN THE CITY

Rev. E. H. Stickney of Fargo, N. Dakota, is in the city a guest at the home of his son, Rev.
George Stickney of the Congregational church. Mr. Stickney has been connected with the Home Missionary work of the northwest for the past forty years will address the missionary societies at the church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all who wish to attend.

THE WEATHER

ARMISTICE PROGRAM WAS CARRIED OUT AT HIGH SCHOOL FRIDAY

Dr. Carpenter Gave Main Address of Afternoon—Says We Must Make Continued Demands for World Peace—Says That Spiritual Must Prevail Over the Material

The Armistice Day program at the high school auditorium Friday afternoon proved most impressive. Mrs. Mary Turner Carriel, of the Service Star Legion, presided. The large audience joined in singing America and then came an inspiring number by the High School chorus, under the direction of Miss Lena Hopper.

R. Y. Rowe paid a tribute to departed ex-service men and Mrs. Carriel spoke briefly of the work of the Service Star Legion in developing the Victory drive. The address of the afternoon was given by Dr. B. G. Carpenter, of Peoria, who declared that the world today must choose between Caesar and Christ, that the struggle is between materialism and the spiritual. He urged upon his hearers to talk peace on every possible occasion so that the conferees at Washington may have no doubt about the wishes of the people thruout the world.

The opening prayer was by Rev. A. P. Howell, of the First Baptist church, following a period of silent prayer by the audience. The recessional was sung by a quartette, composed of Mrs.
Barr Brown, Miss Ruth Armstrong, Messrs. Hackett Wilder and Clayton Quast. Their accompanied was Mrs. Bullard.

Then Mrs. Margaret T. Forrest sang a solo with Miss Louise Miller as accompanist. At the conclusion of the address by Dr.
Carpenter the audience, under the leadership of Albert C. Metcalf, sang the Star Spangled Banner and the Battle Hymn of the Republic.

The benediction was pronounced by Rev. C. D. Robertson, pastor of Centenary church.

The Victory Drive
Mrs. Carriel spoke of the splendid progress made toward the accomplishment of the Victory drive and said this had been made possible through the fine co-operation of the people with the members of the Service Star Legion. She referred to the leadership of Mrs. L. P. Alcott, president of the organization, who was too modest to preside during the Armistice day observance.

Mrs. Carriel mentioned the hope that the drive might be extended from its limits along the Vandalla road and to South Main street, commenting on the nine-mile memorial drive in Ohio and one of twenty-five miles in length planned in western Saskatchewan.

The speaker said that the Service Star Legion was especially obligated to the park board and to the board of county commissioners for hearty cooperation.

Mrs. Carriel voiced the hope that from the observance of Armistice day that the people should be taught the shamefulness of war, that there might come a sentiment strong enough to wipe out those newspapers which make their continued contributions to the fomenting of the war spirit.

The Meaning of the Hour Dr. Carpenter referred, in his opening remarks, to the solemn meaning of the hour as the tribute in Washington is paid to the unknown soldier and as people throughout the United States joined in their observance of the day. He congratulated the committee because of the success of the observance in Jacksonville, wherein the people joined so heartily notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. He said that the people must guard against making the observance of Armistice day a mere formality.

"We are here," Dr. Carpenter said, "to work out certain definite propositions and to benefit society from the decisions that we make."

"In the public library in Peoria an intensive study developed the fact that not one person in twenty-five is capable of mind concentration. In this modern age with its movies and its newspaper sensationalism the tendency is not toward thinking. But the time calls for real thinking on the part of the people and that their thoughts shall be translated into benefits to society. The first words of many great documents are the most important, so with the Bible we find the first words, 'In the beginning, God...'

"In that great human document, the declaration of independence, which our fathers framed, begins with 'We, the people...'
and that phrase is still on trial, and it is an open question as to whether or not 'We, the people

MINERS MISLED BY FEW DEMAGOGUES JOHN LEWIS SAYS

President Comments
On Action of Illinois Miners

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers of America, when informed today that the Illinois Mine Workers had adopted a resolution at their Peoria convention to support financially the unauthorized strike of their fellow workers in Kansas said the Illinois miners had been misled by "a few ranting demagogues."

Mr. Lewis, who is in Washington as a member of the advisory committee to the American delegation, said the action of the Illinois miners would have no effect on the situation with respect to the Kansas strike. He refused to discuss the statement made at Peoria by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois union that the action meant war with the international organization.

"The action of the Peoria convention," said Mr. Lewis, "is unfortunate and will not receive the approval of the great majority of the United Mine Workers of America who believe in orderly procedure and in carrying out their contractual obligations. A few ranting demagogues who are inspired by their political ambitions in the miners union have undertaken to confuse its membership on the Kansas situation."

"There is only one issue in Kansas: shall the mine workers of that state conform to the provisions of their wage agreement?" The recent international convention of the United Mine Workers after an exhaustive discussion of the subject decided that the contract must be complied with. The international union is following a policy of enforcing that decision.

"The Kansas industrial court law is not involved in the question of contract. It is a distinctive issue and steps are being taken by the international union to secure a judicial test of its constitutional provisions."

"The misguided action of the Peoria convention will not alter or affect the policy of the international in dealing with illegal and unauthorized strike of the Kansas mine workers."

STATE'S ATTORNEYS

NOISY MAY BY TORMY WEATHER

It was to the credit of Jacksonville that the Armistice Day parade was not postponed because of unfavorable weather. In some other cities the Armistice day plans were changed because of the rain and stormy weather, but not so in this city.
Those who had arranged the parade features and others who had promised to participate kept faith and decided that as the boys overseas often faced discomfort, so they would willingly do so here rather than mar the program arranged for the day. The parade would have been fine and creditable for a bright, sunny day, and because the more notable because it was staged under such unfavorable conditions.

Armistice Day Events Held in Court House Because of Inclement Weather—Other News of Winchester Community.
Winchester, Nov. 11.—Elaborate plans had been made for the Armistice Day celebration in Winchester, but on account of the unfavorable weather the plans were changed and the program was given in the court room.
The program began with a selection by the high school band. This was followed by a period of silent prayer and the sounding of taps. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Elmore and the salute to the flag was given by the high school students. The remaining numbers on the program were as follows:
America—Audience.
Address, "What the Community Owes to the Ex-Service Man"—W. R. Johnson.
Address, "What the Ex-Service Man Owes to the Community"—Judge J. A. McKee.
Selection by band.
The soldiers then marched to the Christian church where a fine hot lunch was served, consisting of roast beef and fish sandwiches, pickles, pie and coffee. The committee worked hard to make the day a success but on account of the inclement weather a part of the program could not be carried out. After the lunch the soldiers gave a drill and a flag raising demonstration.
The American Legion carnival was well attended Thursday and Friday evening and a nice sum was realized from the sale of farm products of various kinds.
Dr. E. B. Waters was a St. Louis visitor Thursday.
Mrs. Curtis Hankins visited Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Sorrells in Roodhouse.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Groat left Friday for Champaign for a brief visit. While there they will attend the home coming at the university.
Jesse Evans came from St. Louis Friday to attend the Armistice Day celebration.

F. M. DOBSON'S FUNERAL TO BE HELD SUNDAY
The funeral of F. M. Dobson will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 p. m. at his residence, 1500 Enright avenue. Mr. Dobson, who is a brother of Mrs. George Hocking of this city, suffered a stroke of paralysis about a week since. Mrs. Hocking will go to St. Louis today for the funeral and will probably remain in that city for a week or more.

BEWARE OF CRITICISM MR. HARDY'S ADVICE

Swift & Company Representative Tells Rotarians Ill Considered Criticism Does Harm—Fundamentals in Reconstruction Theme of Helpful Address.
"Deflation always follows inflation. This is the economic law of business. To escape it is impossible; to recognize it is the part of wisdom."
These words were used by C. D. Hardy of the Public Relations department of Swift & Company of Chicago. He was addressing the Rotary club at its weekly luncheon in the Pacific hotel Friday. His subject was "Some Fundamentals of Reconstruction."
Mr. Hardy went on to say, "We are sound in all material particulars that make a solvent nation. We have national health, a sound financial organization, plenty of raw material and the industrial equipment with which to develop this raw material."
"One of our troubles is that we are spending too much time in trying to place the responsibility for our depression on individual groups or on a combination of these groups, when our minds should be thinking into the economic causes that have led us where we are and into ways and means to get readjusted."
"Business and business men may not always have been wise; certain it is that many mistakes have been made. But, behind all business, you will find human units and it is human to make errors. We will find that, on the whole, however, our business organizations are the servants of human welfare."
"Examine this idea just a little. It will do us no harm; it may do us good. Man needs to feed and clothe himself. To get this food and clothing requires finance, labor, organization, advertising, salesmanship and scores of other items. It is the job of business men to provide these things for the public. When this provision is made a great service is rendered."
"This is dealing in common places, of course, but the worth while ideas are the common ones the ideas that have stood the test of time as the foundation principles upon which the social order has been constructed."
"Readjustment is coming slowly but it is coming. The need of the hour is to remember that the world has been in chaos. We must recall that every great nation of the earth changed its peace time organization to a war time organization. To get back slowly and without disturbance is no more possible than it was possible to get into this chaotic condition without economic disturbance."
"The signs of the times are hopeful on the whole. Cotton and woolen industries are part of the way back; the cotton farmer and the raiser of sheep have felt some beneficial results already. For them the future looks better than it has for two years."
"In steel and iron, in transportation, in power companies, in the realm of salesmanship, in advertising there is improvement all along the line."
"What we are needing is time, patience, hard work, thrift common sense and a willingness to cease our criticism—at least to cease it until information is adequate to convince us that justice is not being done."
"In a business sense these are the times that try men's souls. The way out will not be found in new laws, in new political parties, in nostrums of any kind. It will be found in readjustments to meet new conditions and in the spirit to boost all business whenever possible."

ARMISTICE DAY EVENTS HELD IN COURT HOUSE BECAUSE OF INCLEMENT WEATHER—OTHER NEWS OF WINCHESTER COMMUNITY.

Winchester, Nov. 11.—Elaborate plans had been made for the Armistice Day celebration in Winchester, but on account of the unfavorable weather the plans were changed and the program was given in the court room.
The program began with a selection by the high school band. This was followed by a period of silent prayer and the sounding of taps. Prayer was offered by Rev. Mr. Elmore and the salute to the flag was given by the high school students. The remaining numbers on the program were as follows:
America—Audience.
Address, "What the Community Owes to the Ex-Service Man"—W. R. Johnson.
Address, "What the Ex-Service Man Owes to the Community"—Judge J. A. McKee.
Selection by band.
The soldiers then marched to the Christian church where a fine hot lunch was served, consisting of roast beef and fish sandwiches, pickles, pie and coffee. The committee worked hard to make the day a success but on account of the inclement weather a part of the program could not be carried out. After the lunch the soldiers gave a drill and a flag raising demonstration.
The American Legion carnival was well attended Thursday and Friday evening and a nice sum was realized from the sale of farm products of various kinds.
Dr. E. B. Waters was a St. Louis visitor Thursday.
Mrs. Curtis Hankins visited Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. Bert Sorrells in Roodhouse.
Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Groat left Friday for Champaign for a brief visit. While there they will attend the home coming at the university.
Jesse Evans came from St. Louis Friday to attend the Armistice Day celebration.

J. H. S. ALL READY FOR SPRINGFIELD

Take Final Workout in Mud Friday Morning—Sign Two-Year Contract with Western Military Academy
Jacksonville high took her final workout yesterday morning in preparation for the Springfield game on Illinois field this afternoon. All of the men are in good condition and will give all they have in the game to bring victory to the school.
Coach Mitchell, despite the heavy going, put his men through a strenuous workout at Jacksonville State hospital grounds, where the team has been practicing this year. Unfortunately, the bad weather will keep many Springfield rooters from attending the game today. Over two hundred students had planned to drive over for the game and cheer their team. It is probable that the rain and snow will make the roads so bad that the trip will have to be called off. However, some may come with the team by train.
The supporters of both teams were hoping for a dry field for the game. This is an impossibility now, though it may be in better shape than it was for the Illinois-Eureka game. It will be heavy going though, and will seriously handicap both teams. Perhaps it will bother Jacksonville more as they play more of an open game.
Coach Mitchell announced last night that a two years' contract had been signed with the Western Military Academy. Jacksonville and Western teams used to play annual games several years ago but have not met recently. This means that Jacksonville will play her turkey day game with the military lads at Alton.
Jacksonville will use the same lineup as that which played in the Waverly game last Saturday. The officials are: Larson, Moline high, referee; Reeve, Knox, umpire; Cully, Illinois college, head linesman.
The game will be called at 2:30 o'clock sharp.

The Nation's Debt to the Fallen

R. Y. Rowe, past commander of the Jacksonville Post of the American Legion at the Armistice Day celebration yesterday paid tribute to departed ex-service men. In emphasizing the thought of the debt of the nation to the fallen soldiers, Mr. Rowe said:

Today is the third anniversary of Armistice Day—November 11, 1918. The day set aside to commemorate the victories won by American troops in the World War. Today in the national cemetery at Arlington, Virginia, the remains of an unknown soldier who was a member of the American Expeditionary Forces in Europe, was buried; the remains will be representative of all unidentified American dead who in the World War gave their lives that civilization and free government might endure.

The President of the United States has by proclamation called upon people of America to recognize by appropriate ceremonies the loyal devotion and self-sacrifice of our valiant dead, and call upon all devout and patriotic citizens to pause for a period of silent prayer and thanksgiving to Almighty God for the precious lives so willingly given in our country's cause.

It was my privilege one Sunday afternoon this summer to visit at Arlington—the National Cemetery on the Virginia hills beyond the Potomac overlooking the city of Washington.

Here sleep the silent hosts who gave their lives that more fitting might live. Anyone who has wandered within the sacred precincts of this place has been brought to a closer meaning of our national duty and felt his patriotism quicken at the contact.

Our Capitol City and National Cemetery stand here close together, and look each upon the other, and this is well. For if it must needs have been that the men who rest at Arlington should die for their country, what more fitting than that in the bivouac of the long night they should sleep on the heights overlooking the Capitol itself, close to the heart of the Nation they gave their blood to maintain.

Through the grounds are bronze tablets inscribed with the solemn words, "The Bivouac of the Dead."

"The muffled drum's sad roll has beat The soldier's last tattoo;
No more on Life's parade shall meet That brave and fallen few.

"On Fame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread,
And Glory guards, with solemn round,
The bivouac of the dead."

Turning to your left at the crest of the hill is the Field of the Dead, where the headstones stretch away in apparently endless lines—the stones set in rows—uniform in distance arrayed in order and marshalled as battalions for review—a silent army, 16,000 strong.

Another memorial is the monument to the Unknown Dead, 2,111 nameless soldiers are gathered in one common grave. The simple story is told in the letters chiseled on the monument.

Beneath This Stone
Repose the Bones of 2,111 Unknown Soldiers Gathered After the War, from the Field of Bull Run and the Route to the Rappahannock.

Their names could not be identified but their names and deaths are recorded in the archives of their country, and its grateful citizens honor them as of their noble army of martyrs. May they rest in peace.

September A. D. 1866.

So today the services at Arlington are appropriate.

No military man of high rank or great achievement who died in the war has received such a funeral as falls to the lot of the nameless American trooper, who will be borne from the capitol thru the streets of Washington to the president of the United States as chief mourner to be buried in Arlington Cemetery today. The entire nation joins in memorializing this man—and thousands of his comrades known and unknown.

To many of us it will not be an unknown soldier whose body goes on the caisson in the procession. It will be one of our comrades—one of "our boys." To some men and women—weeping a little in the crowd after an all night vigil—it will be their boy who went missing one day and was never found until now.

This unknown soldier and all our heroic dead have a first mortgage upon the affections and fortunes of the American people.

To them we owe a duty—
First—To care for and protect the widows and orphans of these men—to the women of America whose lives are buried with their loved ones in the battlefields of France.

When the history of the great war is finally completed you will not find the names of generals and statesmen who made victory possible, in the halls of fame—but the mothers of these heroic dead who made everything possible. To protect them is our duty.

Second—To care for the wounded, sick and disabled. Hundreds of these men have been quartered in cellars, poorhouses and insane asylums. The state of Illinois has plans now under way to build cottages in connection with our hospital here to adequately care for and return if possible these disabled men to civil life. That, my friends, is a part of our duty. In memory of our dead and the principles for which they gave their lives.

Third—We owe a duty to Uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America. Foster and perpetuate 100 per cent Americanism, educate those in this country and those who come to our shores that we have a government of the people, by the people, and for the people whose powers are derived from the consent of the governed—a perfect union of states one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which our patriotic dead have sacrificed their lives and their fortunes.

It was a great sight to see the school children in the parade today. They were learning one of the greatest lessons of life—how to treat the American flag—to respect it—to revere it and love it. One of the high points of citizenship is the lesson of service to community, state and nation.

With these duties to our heroic dead in our hearts let us renew on this Armistice Day our vows of fealty, repudiate and keep unshakable our faith in the high ideals and unselfish hopes that fired the hearts of Americans in 1918—that made ours a land from whence crusaders came, with souls aflame, worthy of their victory.

One idea especially I want to give you today—Abraham Lincoln in a speech in this state in 1837—almost 25 years before he was president, said:

"Since 1776 the War of the Revolution, the nation has thrived and grown great in the visible presence of the surviving heroes and heroines of the Revolution—the very sight of them has inspired us."

The second great epoch in American history was the Civil War, and since that time for 60 long years this nation has thrived and grown great in the visible presence of the surviving heroes—The storms of life and the snows of many winters are rapidly overtaking the veterans of the Civil War—and today, gray, a little stooped, and a little tired from the long and tedious "march" they are almost ready to say: "Let us cross over the river and lie down in the shade of the trees."

R. Y. ROWE

The third epoch in this country's history was the world war. Let us highly resolve that we will keep alive the flame of patriotism and will perpetuate the memory of America's Unknown Dead and all who gave their lives because of their heroic service and supreme sacrifice.

May the memories of this occasion—the memories of the 66 comrades from Morgan county who laid down their lives in defense of the Stars and Stripes and of all America's heroic dead go with us from this place, and this hour and abide with us like a blessed benediction, so that in the future no evil may triumph over our beloved land—the beautiful, healthful, resourceful "land of the free and home of the brave."
"Our country first, our glory and our pride;
Land of our faith, land where our fathers died;
When in the right, we'll see the honor bright;
When in the wrong, we'll die to set it right."

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN WHITE HALL FRIDAY

The death of Mrs. Emma Williams occurred at 1:50 o'clock Friday morning at the home of her son, Herbert Williams, in White Hall. The deceased was for many years a resident of Jacksonville. For the past five months she had been ill with heart disease. Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Wilkinson and was born in the Hart's Prairie neighborhood. Her marriage to Bartlett Williams was solemnized February 28, 1878.

Their home was for a long period on East State street in this city and there Mr. Williams died January 1, 1910. Much of the time since the death of her husband Mrs. Williams spent with her children. The deceased was a member of the Methodist church and lived in a way to command the respect of all who knew her.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, living in Colorado, and one son, Herbert Williams. She leaves also one step-daughter, Mrs. A. B. Reid, of this city; a sister, Mrs. Edith Beerup, also of this city and one brother, John Wilkinson, resident in Woodson precinct.

Funeral services are to be held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Methodist church in White Hall.

FINE PROGRAM AT FRANKLIN LAST NIGHT

American Legion Post Gave Box Social and Entertainment—Large Number of Prizes Awarded.

Franklin, Nov. 11.—The local American Legion post gave a box social and entertainment Friday night in Marquette hall which proved a most successful event. The attendance was not what it would have been had the weather been more propitious, but the patronage was liberal and the goodly sum of $150 was realized from the event.

J. Miller Keplinger, adjutant of the post, opened the program with a brief address, after which came the following numbers:

Piano duet—Miss Dorothea Sargent, Mrs. Austin Seymour.

Quartet number—Misses Grace Hill, Blanche Harney, Aileen Aus-and Lou Duncan, with Miss Sargent as accompanist.

Piano solo—Miss Benlah Roberts.

Address—Rev. H. A. Sherman.

Solo—Miss Blanche Harney.

Miss Sargent accompanist.

Address—Rev. Father Smith.

Duet—Miss Dorothea Sargent, Mrs. Austin Seymour.

The applause was so generous that all who had part in the program were forced to respond to encores, and altogether it was a very pleasing program.

After the program came the sale of boxes, pies and candy, with Miss Seymour serving as auctioneer. This feature of the evening provoked much interest and merriment and resulted in a very substantial addition to the receipts of the evening.

A large number of prizes had been offered to the holders of certain lucky numbers. Each person present was given a ticket bearing a number and the winning numbers were drawn from a hat. The prizes and the winners are listed below:

Miles Drug Co., $1 in trade, Mrs. W. N. Luttrell.

W. C. Calhou, $1 in trade, Miss Mary Perkins.

Bert's Lunchery, $2 in trade, Melvin Dugger.

(Continued from Page 1) ... can and will meet our obligations to each other, to society and the world.

History on Review

Then Dr. Carpenter referred briefly to the tests of citizenship made and met in the days of Washington, Jefferson and Lincoln. He referred to the period of business development in the years between the war of the rebellion and the cataclysm of world war. He told of the joyous scenes throughout the country when Armistice day came, the happiness of the people, not because they had defeated an enemy but from the fact that higher ideals had won and an end was to be made of wars.

Continuing, the speaker said, “But three sad and disappointing years have followed. We lost more in the conference over the treaty of Versailles than we gained in the war. The hatreds of the nations were revived and jealousies renewed. More war preparations are under way today than was true before the war, and actual warfare is in progress on eight fields. How can we best honor the unknown soldier? In no way better than in hearing his call to put an end to all wars. There is not much to hope from the conference now sitting in Washington unless the people speak out and let them know that wars must cease.”

Must Make Choice

“Today we must choose between Caesar and Jesus Christ; between those things that are material and those that are spiritual. It is because of this feeling that we people in Peoria last night joined in a resolution to the conference, calling upon them to find some other way for the settlement of international disputes than by shameful war methods. The Bible tells us that ‘he that taketh the sword must perish by the sword’ and the truth of that saying is borne out in history.”

“Let us beware lest the claws of militarism get their hold upon us. Recently 20,000 American officers were released from the army, but they were retained upon the payroll and are to be distributed to the schools and colleges of the country to teach patriotism through militarism.”

“The Chicago Tribune almost daily carries inflammatory article with reference to Japan. Put yourself in the place of that nation and think what you would do under similar circumstances. It is not surprising that with a population over running the little island that Japan looks toward this great nation and its preparations for war with apprehension. I am reminded of the quick reply of the Japanese student, who was once asked why the world was created 25 per cent land and 75 per cent water. He said so that the Christian nations might have a place whereon to sail their ships of war. Let us plead for peace and set our minds upon peace for psychology is a big factor in the situation.

The Great Purpose

“What the people earnestly and sincerely want can be brought about even to disarmament and the end of war. That often quoted statement in the Chicago Tribune, ‘Our country, in her intercourse with foreign nations, may she always be in the right; but our country, right or wrong.’ That is not the correct spirit and we must fight only when we are in the right, remembering that after all, down below our skins, we people are very much alike, just the children of God. So, I say, take every opportunity to talk for peace and the terrors of war will pass away, and let us pray with earnestness, ‘Lord God of hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget.’”

UNKNOWN SOLDIER HOME FROM WARS

Noted Were Present

Down below the platform, placed for the casket, in a stone vault lay wreaths and garlands brought from England's king and guarded by British soldiers. Above the platform gathered men whose names ring through history: Briand, Foch, Beatty, Balfour, Jacques, Diaz and others in a brilliant array of place and power.

Down around the circling pillars the marble boxes filled with distinguished men and women, with a custer of shattered men from army hospitals, accompanied by uniformed nurses. A surplined choir took its place to await the dead.

Faint and distant the silvery strains of a military band stole into the big white bowl of the amphitheater. The mourning notes of a funeral march grew clearer with the roll and mutter of the muffled drums.

At the arch, where the choir waited, the hero comrades of the dead, lifted his casket down and followed by the generals and the admirals, who had walked beside him from the capitol, he was carried to the place of honor.

A prayer, carried out over the crowd by amplifiers, so that no word was missed, took a moment or two, then the sharp call of the bugle rang “Attention,” and for two minutes the nation stood at pause for the dead, just at high noon. Then the band sounded and in a mighty chorus rolled up the wonderful words of “America.”

President Harding stepped forward, beside the coffin to say for America the thing that today was nearest to the nation's heart, that sacrifices such as this nameless man, fallen in battle, might perhaps be made unnecessary down through the coming years. Every word that President Harding spoke reached every person through the amplifiers and reached other thousands upon thousands in New York and San Francisco.

Repeats Lord's Prayer.

Mr. Harding showed strong emotion as his lips formed the last words of the address. He paused, then with raised hand and head bowed, went on in the measured, rolling period of the Lord's prayer. The response that came back to him from the thousands he faced, from the other thousands out over the slopes beyond perhaps from still other thousands away near the Pacific, or close packed in the heart of the nation's greatest city rose like a chant. Then the foreign officers who stand highest among the soldiers or sailors of their flags, came on by one to the bier to place gold and jeweled emblems for the brave above the breast of the sleeper.

The president then set the American seal of admiration for the valiant upon the casket. Side by side he laid the medal of honor or the distinguished service cross. And below, set in place with reverent hands, grew the long line of foreign honors. The Victoria cross, never before laid on the breast of any but those who had served the English flag; all the highest honors of France, and Belgium and Italy and Roumania and Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Through the religious services that followed and prayers, the swelling crowd sat motionless until it rose to join in the words of “Rock of Ages,” and the last rite for the dead was at hand.

Lifted from the stage the unknown was carried in his flag-wrapped coffin, out to the terrace. The bearers laid the sleeper down above the crypt in which had been placed a little of the soil of France. The dust his blood helped redeem from alien hands, will mingle with his dust as time marches by.

The simple words of the burial ritual were said by Bishop Brent, flowers from war mothers of America and England were laid in place. For the Indians of America, Chief Plenty Coos came to call upon the Great Spirit of the redmen, with gesture and chant and tribal tongue that the dead should not have died in vain. Then the casket, with its weight of honors, was lowered into the crypt. A rocking blast of gun fire rang from the woods. The glittering circle of bayonets stiffened to a salute to the dead. Again the guns shouted their message of honor and farewell, again they boomed out as a loyal comrade was being laid to his last, long rest. High and clear and true in the echoes of the guns, a bugle lifted the old, old “Taps,” the lullaby for the living soldier, in death his requiem.

Long ago, some forgotten poet caught its meaning clear and set it down that soldiers everywhere might know its message, as they sink to rest:

“Fades the light, “And afar, “Goeth day, cometh night. “And a star “Leadeth all, speedeth all, “To their rest.”

The guns roared out again in the national salute. He was home, the unknown, to sleep forever among his own.

YALE FACES FIRST REAL OPPONENT TODAY

EH Undeclared This Year Meets Princeton In What Should Prove to Be a Hard Fought Battle—Yale Plays Penn State on Neutral Ground.

New York, Nov. 11.—Football classics of major and minor degree hold the center of the eastern gridiron tomorrow afternoon.
For the first time this season intercollegiate football will be entirely lacking and interest will hinge on the struggles which, in some cases date their initial three or four decades.

Overlooking all other battles is the Yale-Princeton game at New Haven, although the Navy-Penn State, Syracuse-Colgate, Pennsylvania-Dartmouth, Harvard-Brown, Amherst-Williams, Washington and Jefferson-Pittsburgh, Wesleyan-Union and Villa Nova-Army clashes are all of more than passing football interest. In Princeton the undefeated Yale eleven faces its first real opponent. Notwithstanding the string of victories accumulated by this fall, including the 14 to 7 triumph over the army, the fact remains that in none of these games has the blue been opposed by a team of the Tigers caliber. A triumph over old Nassau would eliminate any doubt regarding the rejuvenation of the bulldog. A struggle over no less interest, but lacking the same traditions, will be the meeting of the Navy and Penn State on neutral ground at Philadelphia.

Harvard is expected to use a second string combination against Brown, which should make the contest more even. Dartmouth probably will have a slight edge over Pennsylvania; Springfield should be easy for Cornell and Ohio University is favored to win from Columbia.

ILLINOIS BREAKS EUREKA'S SLATE

Capt. Cully's Band Ruled Record of Visitors—Was First Defeat of the Season—Final Score 14 to 0.

Capt. Cully and his Illinois football boys proved to be rude hosts to the Eureka eleven on Illinois field Friday afternoon.

Eureka came to town with her hair braided down her back and a nice clean slate. The Illinois boys first threw mud all over the slate and then broke it.

The result of the game was a severe blow to Eureka. Up to yesterday they had won every game played. Such a thing as losing to Illinois probably never entered the minds of Eureka players.

However, Illinois not only proved better mud horses but outplayed Eureka in all departments of the game.

There was only one place where it might have been said that Eureka had it on Illinois and that was in the forward passing game.

However, with the visitors it was a forlorn hope and while they made several first downs, Illinois' passes were more effective and counted both of the scores.

Illinois showed in splendid form against Eureka which is undoubtedly a team of class. However, Illinois was able to gain thru the Eureka line almost at will while the locals line topped the heavy Eureka backs without any trouble.

Whittier the full back after a few tries had down completely and his work was such that he might as well have been playing on the Illinois squad.

It would be hard to pick star on the Illinois team. Capt. Cully played his usual brilliant game, both on offense and defense. He carried the ball well and several times made long gains, returning punts and intercepted forward passes.

J. Roberts hit the line hard for good gains while Burrus and Jones also made gains when called upon. But Roberts' passing was of a high class while Mellon, Witaschek, Gunn, Reiss, Weber, and Reid held Eureka's attack and also broke thru and tackled runners for a loss, time after time.

Eureka's best offensive players were Driver, Neuman and Dennis. The latter was good at receiving forward passes while Driver and Neuman made a number of gains.

Driver perhaps pulled the star play of the afternoon when he ran about 200 yards back and forth across the field trying to get by the Illinois defense. On each turn he lost ground and was finally downed after losing five yards.

Score in First Quarter
Eureka kicked off to Cully who returned ten yards. Illinois made first down and then was compelled to kick. Both teams received penalties, Illinois being the greater sufferer. After an exchange of punts Illinois carried the ball down the field by straight football where Jones passed to Mellon behind the goal line for a touchdown and Cully kicked the goal.

That was all the scoring in the first half. During the second quarter both teams were frequently compelled to kick as the heavy field prevented consistent gains by straight football. In this quarter Illinois probably would have scored another touchdown.
A five yard gain had placed the ball inside Eureka's ten yard line but a penalty lost this advantage and the ball went over. Just before the half ended Eureka kicked to Illinois.

ARMISTICE DAY SPIRIT UNHURT BY WEATHER

Morning Parade a Very Impressive Event—Gave Proof of Patriotic Enthusiasm of the People

The weather Friday was just about as unfavorable for an armistice day parade as could possibly be the case. Nevertheless, these conditions did not prevent Jacksonville from having such a parade and it was one of the best that this city has known in many years. The rain, snow and bitter wind did not change the plans of the committee nor those who were to be parade participants.

Chairman Stanley Wright announced early in the day that the parade would proceed, no matter what the weather, and his own enthusiasm found ready response with his co-workers.

Immediately following the period of silent prayer observed throughout the nation, the parade moved along West State street to the square and followed the line of march as originally planned. The parade was led by Col. Oscar Smith, managing officer of the School for the Deaf, with his aide, C. Justus Wright. They preceded the Illinois college band of 25 pieces. This place in the parade was given the college band musical organization after it was found that the Jacksonville band would not be able to appear.

Some Parade Features.

A number of veterans of the war of the Rebellion and the Woman's Relief Corps braved the elements and marched the entire distance. Next came Illinois college students and the contingent of the American Legion. The band from Jacksonville state hospital followed, and Dr. McLean as a mounted marshal preceded 60 world war veterans from the federal training center at Jacksonville State hospital.

The came parade features from the Jacksonville State hospital. The first float was of Liberty, a young woman enthroned in white happily designed. A "miniature" drum corps of School for the Deaf pupils made up an unusual feature, and this organization preceded the football players from the school in their field uniforms.

A float suggested some of the work done in the manual training and domestic science departments of the school and after it marched hundreds of the boys and girls, some of them wearing red, others white and still a third group, blue caps. "Uncle Sam" from the I. S. D. had a conspicuous place in the parade and then came a number of boys and girls bearing an enormous American flag.

"The Spirit of '76" was shown by members of DeSilva's drum corps and others of the players were costumed in the uniforms of '61. Knights of Columbus, Knights Templar, Elks and Odd Fellows were well represented and then came a long line of citizens in decorated automobiles.

It was a great parade a fact that no one can deny.

At Illinois College.

Armistice day was appropriately observed at Illinois college with a program at chapel hour. Illinois college probably sent more of her students to the world war than any college in the country of like enrollment.

The address of Col. Smith was especially interesting, as he told of Armistice day in the Argonne. Miss Suzanne Mayer told of the first Armistice day in France while R. Y. Rowe paid a beautiful tribute to the unknown soldier. The program as carried out follows:

Invocation—Dr. F. S. Hayden Star Spangled Banner—Band and audience.
Proclamation of President Harding and Mayor Crabtree—Read by Ribelin.
Armistice Day Three Years Ago—Colonel O. C. Smith.
First Armistice Day in France—Miss Suzanne Mayer.
Jacksonville on Armistice Day 1918—H. H. Bancroft.
Tribute to the Unknown American Soldier—R. Y. Rowe.
America—Band and Audience.
Benediction—Dr. F. S. Hayden.
Following the program the students formed in marching order and headed by the band took part in the parade.

At the High School.

At the Jacksonville High school yesterday morning an Armistice Day program was carried out. The address was by Dr. Thomas Smith, pastor of Westminster church. Dr. Smith, who was in Y. M. C. A. work was overseas of Armistice day and the young people of the high school yesterday found his story of what he saw and heard on that day vastly absorbing.

In Ward Schools.

In the various Ward schools there were also special programs, all purposing to impress upon the pupils the significance of the day.

At School for Deaf.

At the State School for the Deaf a special Armistice day program was carried out at the chapel hour. There were brief addresses by Mr. Spruit, Mr. George Smith, Thelma Skidmore and Col. Smith. In addition, the audience heard with pleasure a very eloquent address by Rev. M. L. Meade, of Benton, a personal friend of the managing officer.

Party for L. P. Hoffman

About twenty-five relatives and friends gathered at the home of E. W. Hoffman, 868 North Prairie street, Thursday night, as a birthday surprise for L. P. Hoffman. The social event had been planned by his children and it proved in every way successful. There were appropriate decorations, pink and white colors prevailing. The evening was spent in cards and dancing and a brief musical program was given. An excellent supper was served.

Box Social at Science Hill School Thursday

A box social was given at Science Hill school near Pisgah Thursday evening. There was a large attendance and thirty-one boxes brought the sum of $45.80. A program was given under the direction of the teacher, Miss Mary Buchanan and greatly enjoyed. The school room was prettily decorated in green and yellow.

Entertained at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Crum and Annabel Crum entertained a company of friends at a dinner party at their home last night on South Diamond street. Miss Vera King, of Palmira, who has been visiting in the city for the past week, was the out of town guest.

The evening was very pleasantly spent with music and games in keeping with the holidays.

Sunday School Class Entertained

The class of girls taught by Mrs. H. A. Chapin, of the State street church Sunday school, enjoyed a pleasant afternoon yesterday at the home of Miss Violet Davis, one of the members. Twenty-three of the girls were present and enjoyed a sewing hour after a short business session. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

MATRIMONIAL

Luthy-Fontan.

The marriage of Miss Genevieve Winifred Fontans of Chicago, and Fred B. Luthy, former resident of this city, took place in Chicago at the home of the bride's parents just a week ago today. The ceremony was largely attended and was very impressive and beautiful.

Miss Fontans is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Fontans of Racine, Wis., but she has lived in Chicago practically all of her life.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Luthy, but from early childhood made his home with his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Cannon of Jacksonville. While here he attended the High School and then went to Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington. During the war he was overseas sixteen months with the Michigan National Guards and won the rank of sergeant. Since his discharge from the service he has held a responsible position with the Electric Automatic company of Chicago.

The newlyweds will be at home to their friends after December 1 in their apartment at 6800 Westworth avenue.

ANDREW RUSSEL, JR. MAKING FOOT BALL RECORD

Andrew Russel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Russel of this city, is a member of the football team at St. John's Military academy at Delafield, Wis., where he is attending school. The cadets' team this season is rated as one of the best at the academy in recent years and young Russel's playing has been a factor in giving the team this reputation.

Russel distinguished himself in the cadets' last game, which they won from the heavy Carroll college team at Waukegan, Wis., 19 to 9.

Today the cadets will play Kemper Military academy at Delafield for the championship of military schools of the middle west.

CHAIRMAN OF PARADE WISHES TO THANK ALL

"It was a wonderful turnout, and we want to thank every person who marched in the Armistice Day parade," said Stanley Wright, chairman of the parade committee, this afternoon. "It only goes to show that Jacksonville can do, despite obstacles," he added.

Mr. Wright wishes to especially thank superintendents of the two state institutions participating in the parade. Col. Oscar C. Smith, superintendent of the Illinois School for the Deaf, and Dr. E. Marshall of the parade, and Dr. E. Marshall of the Jacksonville State hospital contributed largely to the success of the parade. Both the school and hospital had big sections in the parade which stood out as features.

The chairman of the parade committee compliments Col. Smith very highly for his excellent management of the parade. Everything went off without a hitch, and all under adverse conditions owing to the snow and cold weather.

GREAT CLASS IS RECEIVED BY M. W. A.

Camp 912 Membership Roll Increased by More than One Hundred Names—Ceremonies Were Impressive

The initiation of more than 100 men into membership of Camp 912, Modern Woodmen of America, was an event of more than passing importance. For some weeks the preparations have been in the making and the occasion was all that the Woodmen could expect. A number of state officers were present and visiting teams added to the impressiveness of the ceremonial work.

A fine supper was served at the M. W. A. hall by the Royal Neighbors, beginning at 5:30 o'clock and afterward the scene of activities was transferred to the David Prince building. The gymnasium where the initiatory ceremony took place, had been very attractively decorated and all the arrangements were of a kind to make the evening's program impressive.

One hundred and five candidates took the work and thus became members of one of the greatest fraternal insurance orders that passing years have developed. District Deputy W. C. Davis, of Decatur, came with the drill team and staff of Easterly camp No. 1626, of which H. D. Gilliland is chief forester. Members of the drill team of Springfield camp No. 1418 attended in uniform under the direction of J. A. Woods, chief forester.

The Decatur Team.

The visiting Woodmen co-operating with the local team, put on the work in a way which the old and the new members found most interesting. The Decatur staff includes the following personnel:

Consul—Alex Van Pra.
Acting Consul—F. F. Wierman.
Past Consul—State Senator O. W. Smith.
Banker—J. Fred Richter.
Worthy Advisor—M. R. Dickson.

Death—A. E. Wiess.
Youth—A. G. Randall.
S. S. Tanner Made Address

The principal address of the evening was made by S. S. Tanner, of Minier, Illinois state director of the M. W. A. Mr. Tanner, who has visited Jacksonville a number of times, is thoroughly conversant with the affairs of the order and proud of the work that it has done through the years. He presented a great many facts and figures to interest his auditors and to inspire in them a higher regard for the order in which they hold membership.

State Deputy C. S. Townley of Macomb, and Supreme Lecturer Gilroy of Canton, were also present to have part in the program. J. Earl Vasconcellos, the clerk of Camp No. 912, secured the applications of most of the candidates initiated last night, and was chairman of the committee of arrangements. He was ably assisted by other members of the general committee and of several special committees. The names of those constituting these committees have already appeared in print.

As before indicated, the ceremonial session was one of the most important held in the history of Woodcraft in central Illinois.

Members of the Class

In the class initiated were the following:

McNeil V. Andrews, Blair B. Andrews, Flynd R. Angelo, Leonard L. Acree, Theodore T. Arisman, William F. Ausmus, Arthur Birdsell, Albert D. Birdsell, W. Percy Becker, U. J. Brown, John H. RAY CANNOT VISIT THIS CITY NOW

Famous Movie Actor Sends Telegram Expressing Regret Because He Cannot Accept C. of C. Invitation.

Friends of Charles Ray, famous in the world of the movies, will regret to know that it is not possible for him to make a visit in Jacksonville while on the way from Los Angeles to the east. Admirers here learned that Mr. Ray was to be in Chicago and suggested that the Chamber of Commerce invite Mr. Ray here and arrange a program in his honor if his presence could be secured.

The actor in a telegram to the Chamber of Commerce expresses his regret over his inability to accept the invitation. The telegram reads as follows:

"I have had in mind for a long time a visit to my birthplace and fondly hoped to include such a visit on my present trip. Urgent business matters make it imperative for me to be in Chicago and New York at an early date and I have reluctantly had to postpone my trip to Jacksonville until a little later. Rest assured I will embrace the first possible opportunity to renew my acquaintance with Jacksonville and the old white mare. My affectionate regards to everyone and an extra allotment of oats for the white mare. Please invite me again."

It is said that when Charles Ray was a lad living in Litterberry neighborhood that he frequently rode a gray horse. Reference was made to this fact in the letter that Secretary Welch of the Chamber of Commerce sent to Los Angeles.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by those who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purging the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

All the benefits of nasty, cleansing, gripping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without gripping, pain or any disagreeable effects.

Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable or sound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week. Note the effect. 15c and 30c.
